A Message from the Vestry . . . St. James' Rector Transition

Fr. Jim's retirement is still nearly four months away, but the Vestry wanted you to know that we have begun the process of planning the transition and search activities. The process usually takes many months, if not more than a year, so don't be alarmed if there isn't a replacement that first Sunday in July. It's possible that we'll have supply clergy for a short while prior to getting an interim rector. Read more
