A Word from Fr. Jim: "Proud"

Not everyone is aware that my wife, Cynde, has worked for the Diocese of Delaware for about 16 years. She began as a part-time administrative assistant for deployment and quickly began to assume additional program duties. Her work hours and responsibilities grew as her talents and organizational skills were recognized, and when a new Secretary of Diocesan Convention was needed, Cynde was appointed to the position. Under her leadership all aspects of the convention, as well as year-round communications coming forth from the Bishop's Office, were updated to modern systems. When Bishop Brown began his duties as our diocesan bishop, he selected Cynde as his Director of Communications and turned her loose to explore and initiate additional ways to communicate what is going on in the Episcopal Church in Delaware. In addition to utilizing her graphic design expertise, she began to produce and edit regular brief video messages from Bishop Brown. More recently, she took the initiative to visit congregations around the diocese to compile video clips and material for a presentation to support the current evangelism efforts of the congregations in our diocese. The resulting video, Growing Delaware, premiered in January at the diocesan convention, and is well worth your time to watch. I personally am proud of Cynde as my spouse and her work for the church, and believe there is nothing she can't do it when given the opportunity.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Sunday Morning Nursery Attendants - still looking for volunteers or a paid nursery coordinator. We are in need of help in our Sunday morning nursery. If you are interested in volunteering to support your church family in this vital way, or know someone who would like to make a little money, please contact Carolyn Joynt or call 302-438-3224.

Ushers for 8:00 a.m. Sunday Services - still looking for volunteers
Our usher corp for the early morning service has dwindled due to people moving away or needing to attend to other needs. We could really use a few new members. The alternative is that adjustments will have to be made in how who people are greeted and assisted during the service. Please talk to Fr. Jim or contact the church office.

NEW and ongoing* - Hosts for Sunday Morning Fellowship
Can you take a turn helping to provide coffee and light treats after the 10:15am service? A signup sheet is posted in the Great Hall of the Parish House, or call the office at 994-1584.
