

Welcome to Delaware (the First State)

Delaware is a diverse state from its sandy white beaches to the Northern Piedmont region. Delaware is centrally located in the northeast corridor and is a short trip to New York City, Philadelphia, Baltimore or Washington DC by car or rail. You will find something for everyone.

- Museums and cultural events including the Firefly Music Festival and the Grand Opera House.
- Beaches and State Parks – Rehoboth Beach is the nation's summer capital.
- Historic sites – Winterthur and Hagley Museums and the nationally known Longwood Gardens nearby.
- Delaware is known as the home of tax-free shopping including Christiana Mall and the Tanger Outlets.
- Check out the State Bureau of tourism website for details www.visitdelaware.com

